

HAINES-ROLLINS PAPERS
1777-1883, ca.1920 (?), 1969
Deerfield, N.H.

The Haines-Rollins Papers are primarily genealogy of the Haines, Ladd and Pillsbury Families of Deerfield, N.H. and copies of town papers pertaining to Samuel G. Haines (b.1819) activities as an official of the town.

There is one volume of accounts of Samuel Haines (1869-1882) as a carpenter and general worker for the people of Deerfield. A second volume contains copies of correspondence that Samuel received from family members concerning their own daily lives, genealogy and vital statistics.

There is an inventory of the estate of David Haines of Epping who died in 1780 (original).

The only Rollins' papers in the collection are essays written by Elmer H. Rollins as school assignments (ca. 1920 ?) and a note written to Ella Rollins dated 1969.

Minnie Rollins, a descendant of the Haines family, donated the papers to the New Hampshire Historical Society. David Ottinger, present owner (1978) of the Rollins Place on Mt. Delight Rd., Deerfield, N.H. discovered the papers in the house.

Print material and genealogical material have been transferred the Library. See the accession record for the complete listing.
