SEACOAST WIND ENSEMBLE TO PERFORM IN EAGLE SQUARE ON JULY 2

CONCORD, NH—The New Hampshire Historical Society will host the Seacoast Wind Ensemble in a free outdoor concert on Thursday, July 2, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., in downtown Concord's Eagle Square, just outside the Historical Society's museum.

The concert is made possible by the Duncan S. McGowan Memorial Fund for Eagle Square and the Marion C. Smyth Trust/Frederick Smyth Institute of Music.

The Seacoast Wind Ensemble includes more than 50 adults performing on bassoon, clarinet, euphonium, flute, French horn, harp, oboe, percussion, piccolo, saxophone, trombone, trumpet and tuba. The ensemble performs marches, show tunes, jazz, classical/symphonic adaptations for band, Broadway, and modern pop-style tunes, all suitable for the whole family.

In case of rain, the concert will be moved indoors to the adjacent atrium at 7 Eagle Square. Attendees should bring their own chairs for the indoor concert. For directions visit nhhistory.org or call 603-228-6688.

Founded in 1823, the New Hampshire Historical Society is the independent nonprofit that saves, preserves, and shares New Hampshire history. The Society serves thousands of children and adults each year through its museum, library, educational programs, publications, and outreach programs. For more information visit nhhistory.org.
