Collection Overview

Administrative Information:

Hampton, NH, is located in Rockingham County along the Atlantic Ocean. Deeds primarily deal with land transactions signed by various officials, property owners, and sellers in the town of Hampton from the period 1658 through 1876. Full histories of Hampton are available through the Society's reference library.

Collection Scope and Content Note:

This collection consists entirely of land deeds for the town of Hampton, NH, from 1658 to 1876. The land deeds in this collection are organized chronologically, with the majority of the 224 deeds dating in the 1700s. The collection includes deeds from many of New Hampshire's early families, including John and James Leavitt, the sons of Thomas Leavitt, one of the state's earliest permanent residents. The collection also includes deeds from other prominent families, such as: Batchelder, Brown, Dearborn, Marston, Moulton, Philbrick, Sanborn, and Towle.

Arrangement:

The materials in this collection are organized chronologically.
